

Nürnberg FC

§X Overview

1. Name of the Club

The club shall be called "[Club Name]". The name represents the identity, unity, and sporting spirit of its members.

2. Nature of the Club

The club is a semi-competitive football organization open to individuals who are committed to regular participation, skill development, and team performance.

It operates as a structured sports group with organized training sessions, team selection, and participation in competitions.

3. Purpose of the Club

The purpose of the club is to:

- Promote football as a means of physical fitness and personal development
- Develop individual technical skills and tactical understanding of the game
- Build a competitive team capable of participating in local tournaments and matches
- Encourage teamwork, discipline, and responsibility among members
- Provide a structured and motivating environment for continuous improvement

4. Core Values

The club is founded on the following principles:

- Fair play and respect for teammates, opponents, and officials
- Commitment to training and team activities
- Inclusiveness while maintaining a performance-oriented mindset
- Cooperation, discipline, and positive team spirit

5. Membership Philosophy

The club is open to new members who are willing to actively participate and contribute to the team. Selection for matches and tournaments shall be based on attendance, performance, and team requirements.

6. Development and Future Vision

The club aims to grow into a well-organized and recognized football club, with the potential to register as an official association (e.V.) in the future.

It seeks to establish a sustainable structure for long-term participation in local leagues and tournaments.

§X Purpose of the Club

The purpose of the club is to establish a structured and semi-competitive football environment where members can consistently improve their skills, compete in tournaments, and develop as a team.

The club aims to:

- Provide regular and organized training sessions focused on both individual skill development and team tactics
- Build a reliable and competitive team capable of participating in local tournaments and matches
- Promote physical fitness, discipline, and continuous improvement
- Create a balance between enjoyment of the game and a performance-oriented mindset
- Offer an open platform for motivated players to join and contribute to the team

The club is committed to long-term development, both at the individual level and as a collective unit, with the goal of evolving into a well-structured and recognized football organization.

§X Core Values of the Club

1. Commitment

Members are expected to attend training regularly, be punctual, and actively participate. Consistent absence without valid reason is discouraged.

2. Discipline
Members must follow training structure, respect team decisions, and maintain focus during all club activities.
 3. Continuous Improvement
Every member is expected to work on improving their skills, fitness, and understanding of the game. Effort and progress are valued.
 4. Performance-Based Participation
Opportunities to play in matches and tournaments are based on attendance, effort, and performance. Regular training attendance is the primary factor for match selection, unless justified exceptions apply. Exceptional cases may be considered at the discretion of the team leadership.
 5. Team First Mentality
The success of the team is prioritized over individual preferences. Cooperation, communication, and support among members are essential.
 6. Respect and Sportsmanship
All members must show respect toward teammates, opponents, and officials at all times.
 7. Responsibility
Members are responsible for communicating availability, maintaining fitness, and contributing positively to the club environment.

§X Member Responsibilities and Attendance Rules

1. General Responsibilities
All members are expected to:
 - Actively participate in training sessions and matches
 - Maintain a positive and respectful attitude
 - Follow the rules and decisions of the club
 - Contribute to a supportive and disciplined team environment
2. Training Attendance
 - Members are expected to attend training regularly and be punctual
 - Absence must be communicated in advance through the agreed communication channel (e.g., WhatsApp group)
 - Repeated unexcused absences may affect match selection
3. Punctuality
 - Members must arrive on time for training and matches
 - Late arrivals may result in reduced participation in that session or future selection decisions
4. Communication
 - Members are responsible for informing the team about their availability for training and matches
 - Lack of communication will be treated as absence
5. Match Availability and Selection
 - Members must confirm availability for matches within the specified time
 - Team selection is based on:
 - Training attendance
 - Effort and performance
 - Team requirements and balance
 - Regular training attendance is the primary factor for match selection, unless justified exceptions apply
 - Final decisions are made by the team captain and/or coach
6. Justified Absence
Valid reasons for absence may include:
 - Injury or health issues
 - Work or academic commitments
 - Personal emergenciesSuch cases should be communicated as early as possible

7. Disciplinary Measures

Failure to meet responsibilities may result in:

- Verbal warning
- Temporary exclusion from matches
- Suspension in case of repeated misconduct

8. Team Conduct

- Members must respect teammates, opponents, and officials at all times
- Unsportsmanlike behaviour or aggression will not be tolerated

9. Commitment to Improvement

- Members are expected to make an effort to improve their skills and fitness
 - Participation in training activities is mandatory unless a valid reason is provided

§X Finance and Membership Contributions

1. Membership Fee

All members are required to contribute a monthly fee of 5 Euro to support ongoing club activities and expenses.

2. One-Time Registration Fee

All active members are required to pay a one-time fee of 15 Euro upon joining the club.

This fee contributes to:

- Initial equipment (balls, bibs, etc.)
- Club setup and organizational costs

3. Active Members

Active members are those who regularly participate in training sessions and matches.

They are required to:

- Pay the monthly membership fee (5 Euro)
- Pay the one-time registration fee (15 Euro)

4. Supporting Members

Individuals who are not regularly active in training or matches may remain part of the club as supporting members.

Supporting members:

- Contribute the monthly fee (5 Euro)
- Are welcome to participate in training or friendly matches (if appropriate)
- Do not have priority in match or tournament selection
- Are not required to pay the one-time registration fee unless they become active members

5. Use of Funds

All collected funds shall be used exclusively for club-related expenses, including:

- Equipment and maintenance
- Tournament fees
- Field rental
- Other necessary club activities

6. Financial Management

- The Treasurer is responsible for collecting, managing, and recording all financial transactions
- Financial updates shall be shared with members periodically to ensure transparency

7. Payment Rules

- Monthly fees should be paid regularly (e.g., at the beginning of each month)
- Delayed or missing payments may affect participation in club activities

8. Fairness Principle

Financial contribution does not guarantee participation in matches or tournaments. Selection remains based on attendance, effort, and performance.

§X Fairness and Selection Criteria

Participation in matches and tournaments shall be based on the following three factors:

1. Attendance (Primary Factor)
 - Attendance is evaluated based on recent training sessions (e.g., last 4–6 sessions)
 - Members with higher attendance are given priority in selection
 - Regular training attendance is the primary factor for match selection, unless justified exceptions apply
 2. Effort and Commitment
 - Effort is assessed based on active participation, discipline, and engagement during training
 - Members are expected to demonstrate consistent effort and willingness to improve
 - Low effort may reduce selection priority, regardless of attendance
 3. Performance
 - Performance is evaluated based on training sessions and match situations
 - Technical ability, tactical awareness, and decision-making are considered
 - Performance is used to support team balance and competitiveness
 4. Balanced Decision-Making
 - Final selection decisions are made by the team captain and/or coach
 - All three factors (attendance, effort, and performance) are considered together
 - Attendance remains the primary criterion, followed by effort and performance
 5. Exceptional Cases
 - Exceptions may be made in justified situations (e.g., injury, work, or academic commitments)
 - Such decisions shall be made fairly and in the best interest of the team

§X Participation of External (Guest) Players

1. Definition

External players (guest players) are individuals who are not registered members of the club but may participate in training sessions or friendly matches on a temporary basis.
2. Purpose of External Players

External players may be invited in order to:

 - Ensure sufficient number of players for training or friendly matches
 - Maintain game quality when regular members are unavailable
 - Support team development in informal settings
3. Priority of Club Members

Registered club members shall always have priority in all activities.
External players must not replace committed members who regularly attend training.
4. Participation in Friendly Matches

External players may participate in friendly matches when needed, particularly in cases of low attendance or to balance teams.
5. Participation in Tournaments

Only registered club members are eligible to participate in tournaments and official matches.
External players are not permitted to participate in such events.
6. Selection and Approval

The inclusion of external players in friendly matches shall be decided by the team captain and/or coach.
7. Conduct and Expectations

External players must follow the same standards of discipline, respect, and sportsmanship as club members.

8. Long-Term Principle

The club aims to maintain a stable and committed core team. Regular reliance on external players is discouraged.

§X Club Roles and Responsibilities

1. Club Coordinator

The Club Coordinator is responsible for the overall organization and management of the club including:

- Coordinating club activities and planning schedules
- Managing communication among members
- Overseeing decision-making processes
- Ensuring that club rules and structure are followed

2. Coach / Trainer

The Coach is responsible for the sporting and training aspects of the club including:

- Planning and conducting training sessions
- Designing drills and improving team performance
- Providing feedback to players
- Supporting team development and tactical organization

3. Team Captain

The Team Captain acts as the leader on and off the field including:

- Leading the team during matches
- Assisting in team selection together with the coach
- Maintaining discipline and team spirit
- Acting as a link between players and club leadership

4. Treasurer

The Treasurer manages all financial matters of the club including:

- Collecting membership fees
- Managing and recording expenses
- Maintaining transparency in financial matters
- Providing regular financial updates to members

5. Equipment and Logistics Manager

This role is responsible for organizing equipment and match logistics including:

- Managing footballs, bibs, and other equipment
- Ensuring equipment is available during training and matches
- Assisting with field booking and coordination if required

6. Digital Media and Marketing Manager

Responsible for the club's digital presence and visibility including:

- Manages social media platforms (e.g., Instagram, WhatsApp updates)
- Shares match results, training highlights, and announcements
- Promotes club activities and events
- Supports recruitment of new members
- Enhances the public image and visibility of the club

7. General Principle

- Roles may be assigned or elected by members
 - One person may hold multiple roles if necessary
 - All role holders are expected to act responsibly and in the best interest of the club

§X Use of Funds and Financial Governance

1. Use of Funds

All collected funds shall be used exclusively for the development and operation of the club. This includes:

- Equipment: footballs, bibs, cones, and necessary training materials
- Tournament Fees: registration and participation costs for competitions
- Field Rental: booking and maintenance costs for training and matches
- Other Club Needs: any additional expenses required for the functioning and improvement of the club

Funds shall not be used for personal benefit of any member.

2. Financial Priorities

The club shall prioritize spending in the following order:

1. Essential training needs (equipment, field)
2. Match and tournament participation
3. Additional improvements (optional equipment, upgrades)

3. Decision-Making on Expenses

- Small or routine expenses (e.g., balls, cones) may be decided by the Treasurer and Coordinator
- Larger expenses (e.g., tournament fees, field rental agreements) should be discussed with members
- Major financial decisions shall be approved by majority agreement of active members

Members are encouraged to suggest needs or improvements for the club.

4. Budget Awareness

The Treasurer and Coordinator shall ensure that spending is aligned with available funds and that the club maintains a reasonable financial reserve.

5. Financial Transparency

- All income and expenses shall be recorded clearly by the Treasurer
- Financial updates shall be shared with members on a regular basis (e.g., monthly or quarterly)
- Members have the right to request information about club finances at any time

6. Communication of Financial Information

Financial updates may be shared through:

- Club meetings
- WhatsApp or communication groups
- Shared documents (e.g., spreadsheet)

The aim is to ensure that all members are informed and that financial decisions remain transparent and trusted.

§X Decision-Making on Expenses

To ensure clarity and fairness, expenses are categorized as follows:

a) Small Expenses (up to 30 Euro)

- May be approved and managed directly by the Treasurer and/or Coordinator
- No prior group approval required
- Must be recorded and communicated in financial updates

b) Large Expenses (30 to 100 Euro)

- Should be discussed briefly with members (e.g., via WhatsApp or meeting)
- Approved by the Treasurer and Coordinator after consultation

c) Major Expenses (above 100 Euro)

- Must be clearly presented to all active members
- Require discussion and majority agreement before approval

All expenses must be reasonable, necessary, and aligned with the club's priorities.

§X Team Activities and Club Events

1. Purpose of Team Activities

The club shall organize team activities in addition to regular training and matches in order to:

- Strengthen team spirit and communication
- Promote social interaction among members
- Increase the visibility of the club
- Generate financial support where possible

2. Frequency

Team activities shall be organized approximately every 3 to 6 months, depending on availability and interest of members.

3. Types of Activities

Activities may include, but are not limited to:

- Team dinners or social gatherings
- Friendly events or internal tournaments
- Public or community events
- Participation in local events or initiatives
- Fundraising activities

4. Participation

Participation in team activities is encouraged for all members but remains voluntary.

5. Organization

Team activities may be organized by the Coordinator, Captain, or any member with approval from the group.

6. Funding

- Activities may be partially supported by club funds if approved
- Certain activities may aim to generate funds for the club
- Members may contribute individually depending on the nature of the activity

7. Club Development

These activities contribute to the long-term development of the club by strengthening community presence, improving member engagement, and supporting financial sustainability.
